Day 1: Atemporal Hotel, Miraflores

---

Miraflores

Peru's capital is a bustling modern metropolis and culinary mecca. It is the perfect place to shop, dine at some of the world's finest restaurants and visit museums and galleries showcasing Peru's thriving contemporary arts scene and fascinating and complex colonial and pre-Colombian past.

Overnight: Atemporal Hotel

Marrying an eclectic sense of modern urban cool with an old school service ethic that anticipates guests' every need, Atemporal is the perfect refuge for discerning travelers interested in exploring contemporary Lima.

Housed in a revamped 1940s mansion in the chic Miraflores district, this nine-room hotelito comes from the same award-winning design team behind Hotel B - Ignacio Masías, Sandra Masías and Jordi Puig - in the neighboring district of Barranco, and Titilaka, the boutique lodge on the shores of Lake Titicaca. The informal and relaxed atmosphere breaks down the barriers between visitors and the friendly, knowledgeable staff, making this one-off luxury townhouse a perfect cozy refuge, where guests can decompress and recharge their batteries between adventures in Peru's vibrant capital.

Lima for the Dilettante

Barranco is Lima's smallest yet most lively district, with its bohemian charm and air of inspiration. It is an eclectic mesh of past and present, of grand colonial mansions and stylish, trendy restaurants, boutique shops and equally inviting bars. The district is home to many of Peru's artists, writers, and musicians, and is the hub of creativity in Lima. Home to MATE, Mario Testino's gallery, Museum of Contemporary Art MAC, and Pedro de Osma Museum. Let Barranco romance you!
